Subject: RE: Purdue v. ST - draft dismissal of the '112 Patent
Date: Thursday, August 4, 2022 9:06:55 AM

Counsel:

In an effort to focus remaining discovery and trial in this matter, Purdue withdraws its claims of direct and indirect infringement of claims 1, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 12 of U.S. Patent No. 8,035,112 against defendants. This removes infringement of claims 1, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 12 of the '112 patent from the case. Purdue will not be asserting any claims of the '112 patent in this case going forward. If ST would like for an amended pleading to be filed removing those claims, please provide your consent in response to this email and an agreed motion to amend the complaint to remove the above claims will be filed. If ST does not consent, this email moots any claims and defenses related to the '112 patent permanently from this case.

CAUTION: External Email!

Thanks Michael - Purdue's operative pleading asserts infringement of the '112 patent. Similarly, ST is asserting counterclaims directed to the '112 patent. We think the most efficient path is a stipulation of dismissal of all '112 patent claims and counterclaims.

This is unnecessary. If you think otherwise, please state why. We are not going to be asserting any of the claims from the '112 patent going forward. I just want to understand why you think this is somehow required.

Michael - attached for your review is a draft stipulation of dismissal for the '112 patent. Please send us your edits in redline or let us know if we have your permission to file.

Thanks,
